Rev. J. Kelp April 21. 1845.

Hartford Trumbull Co. Ohio April 21. 1845

28

Dear Br. While the Dram waits I write a word

1. I yesterday read your article in the April N. M. H. It is decidedly the best thing I have seen on the subject. I thank you sincerely for it, & thank God that he enabled & disposed you to prepare it. It will be read by multitudes & tell when it is read. It does my soul good to find a Brother who understands this subject & who can make others understand it — Pray God bless you in your labors. God on —

2. Now one word for myself —

I am sorely disappointed that some notice of my book has not appeared in the Emancipator — a month or more or more I wrote to Mr. Leavitt esq. city requesting him to attend to the matter mentioned below — but nothing yet appears — Why — In 10 days from this I must open my box in Cleveland — with only a few which have been left at Cleveland —

The Emancipator is extensively taken in Ohio — I need the notice the first — can you to the sale of the book — Now Br. let me depend on you to see that this is done immediately — The outline copy for terms of the book should be named — its liberal bearings — its antidote to prejudice &c — Pray oblige me in the premises Yours truly John Keep —

The book takes well when it has been read —